ALEXA. GAZETTE & VIRGINIA ADVERTISER, PUBLISHED DAILY BY EDGAR SNOWDEN. JAZZETTE BUILDING, NO. 70 PRINCE STREET. One Year.....$8 00 Six Months.....4 00 Three Months.....2 00 One Month.....0 75

ALEXA. GAZETTE & VIRGINIA ADVERTISER. (FOR THE COUNTRY.) Published regularly on TUESDAYS, THURSDAYS and SATURDAYS, at FIVE DOLLARS PER ANNUM, payable in advance. ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at the usual rates, viz: One square (eight lines) one time, $1.00. For each subsequent insertion twenty-five cts. additional will be charged.

Sippings of "Punch."

OPERA SERIA.
The Wigginses were giving the First Garden Party, and young Frisker, who had just taken the studio next door, had one too, when suddenly a ponderous missile came hurtling through the air (narrowly missing several of the guests) and buried itself with a tremendous "thud" in the turf of Wiggin's lawn.

Tenor voice (Dolce from the top of the wall) — "I beg your pardon, but have seen a quoit?"
Wiggins, Sen. (solo bass, of an obnoxious character) — "Have I seen a quoit?"
And Chorus ff. — "Have we, etc., etc?"
by the whole strength of the company.

BELLEGGRENTS.
Grandpa, (goaded to madness, as the ball bounded from the back of his head) — "Get out of the room, you little—!" I told you half-a-dozen times, sir, to go and play in the hall. My dear, I wish you'd ring for Mary to take the child upstairs."
Grandson — "If you do, I'll get into mischief and turn on all the taps." ! !

EMULATION.
Maud — "I've had whooping cough!"
Ethel — "Oh, that's nothing; why I've had the measles!"
Maud — "Well, I've had bronchitis!"
Ethel — (after a pause) — "I learn French!"
[Collapse of Maud.]

TO CORRESPONDENTS.
Fastidious James. — It is not strictly etiquette when a gentleman declines to dine with you on the ground of being engaged, to write in reply that you believe that's all humbug and that he hopes for a pleasant invitation; but your answer would often be truthful.

Impudent Healer. — When Hamlet said: "Those that are married already, all but one shall live," it is certain that he meant, when king of Denmark, to provide means of living for such couples as had wedded on insufficient incomes. But don't you and "dear Tom" meddle on the idea that anything of the sort will be done for you. Wait and hope to get tired of one another.

Out's Excuse. — Letters intended to be delivered never miscarry. Misdirect carefully, if for any reason you desire your epithet to go astray, and returned to you, that you may show it when the mischief you wish it thought you tried to prevent is done. If you ought to write to Leicester Square, omit "Square," and your letter will make a pleasant tour into the midlands.

A Rightful Heir. — With pleasure. Send us all your papers, and we will read them carefully, and, if necessary, obtain our solicitor's opinion for you. "Eise, wherefore breath we in a Christiana world?" or, rather, what else is the duty of an editor?

Scrupulous. — There is no objection to shooting a street organist, but do not fire out of your window when anybody else is about, lest you injure a fellow creature.

L. J. M. — You did not send the stamps, which was a bore, because at the moment we happened to want some, but your poem would equally have gone right to give us the slightest trouble?

A Dejected Wife. — We can give no advice about marking ink. Besides, respectable washerwomen now decline to work for persons mean enough to mark their linen, and thus not only show a want of confidence, but give the trouble of sorting the things.

VIENNA LOCALS. — The bricks used for building purposes in Vienna are twelve inches long, six inches in breadth and three and a half inches thick. Immense quantities of them are used in the construction of a house, as all division walls of rooms are of brick, and the outer walls generally double as thick as they are with us.

All the most mortal work in Vienna is done by women, such as cleaning and sweeping the streets, gathering up garbage, carrying water, and pumping it from the cisterns to the reservoirs in the upper stories, sawing wood, &c. Woman has the "right" to do a man's work in Austria, and as the "lords of creation" have no rights of their own, she is on full equality here. They are the carriers for all the newspapers.

The "Beautiful Blue Danube," which Strauss has immortalized, is a stream of very muddy water, not much wider than Jones' Falls, though it is quite a swift running stream, and navigable for some miles by steamboats that draw but eight or ten inches of water. Travelers generally find that the poets and painters use a license of language and description that would in any other profession be called lying.

There are abundance of cherries for sale in Vienna, but they are brought here from Italy, the season having been too backward and cold here for fruit to ripen yet. However, this 3d of June is a decidedly warm spring day, and we have actually had no rain for forty-eight hours.

There are plenty of flees in Vienna, notwithstanding the cold weather. The natives never feel them, however, nor do any other Europeans except the English. They seem to have a special fondness for American ladies, but do not approach them in such hordes as in Italy. Still, there is sufficient to keep up a pretty continual irritation.

No one in Vienna chews tobacco, and there is none on sale anywhere. Cigars are manufactured by the Government, and are sold only at stores where nothing else is sold except postage stamps. They are at fixed prices, the lowest about four krutzers and the highest eight, or about four cents in our currency. The latter are about equal in quality to American domestic cigars, that bring three dollars per hundred. The single cigar sold here at the same rate as if one thousand were purchased.

The lottery system is in full vogue in Austria, under the sanction and authority of the Government, and flaming prizes are the corner promise immense prizes, as was the case in Baltimore during the petty days of France, Broadbent & Co. — Cor. Balt. American.

THE COLORADO BUG. — This pest has arrived in this section of the country. It is ravaging among the potato patches in Shenandoah county, and has now appeared here. A gentleman in town who has planted a lot of potatoes, says that they have almost entirely destroyed it. Next week we shall publish a history of this destructive creature, and the various means resorted to, in order to rid our fields of its presence. — Winchester News.

BALTO. LOCK HOSPITAL.

DR. JOHNSTON. Physician of this celebrated institution, has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, Pleasant and Effectual Remedy in the world for all DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affecting of the Kidneys or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Trembling, Dimness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Stomach or Skin, Affecting of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Spleen, Affecting of the Yields, Disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the bites of the Serpents to the Mariners of Ulysses, heightening their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, &c.

YOUNG MEN. Especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, and dreadful and destructive habits which annually sweep to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant acquirements, who amidst the thunders of oration, or wedded to estates, in the living eye, may exist with full confidence.

MARRIAGE. Married persons or Young Men contemplating Marriage, Beware of Weakness, Loss of Power—Impotency, Nervous Excessibility, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other Disqualification, speedily relieved.

It is who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS. Immediately cured and Full Vigor Restored. This distressing Affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgences. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the natural powers are lost sooner by the frequent use of the pleasures of the flesh, than by the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions weakened. Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Impotency, Constitutional Debility, and Wanting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and Death.

A CURE WARRANTED IN TWO DAY Relief in Six Hours! No Mercury!

Persons ruined by Ignorant, Trifling Pretenders and their Deadly Poison, should apply immediately.

DR. JOHNSTON. Member of the Royal College of Surgery of London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greatest part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being subject to sudden sounds, faintness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Loss of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, being their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.

YOUNG MEN Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, already described, a habit frequently contracted from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be stained from all prospects and enjoyment of life by the consequences of indulging in the path of nature, and not including in person's duties. Such persons must, before contemplating MARRIAGE

Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote conjugal happiness. Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens and the end, and the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is dimmed by our own.

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. When the misguided and imprudent victims of pleasure find that they have incurred the cause of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-founded sense of shame or dread of their friends prevent them from applying to those who, from education and long study, are enabled to detect and cure the constitutional symptoms of the disease, and thus make their appearance, such as increased sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, noises in the ears, and other symptoms, which, if not cured, will, in the end, terminate in a premature and painful death.

It is a melancholy fact that thousands die victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of ignorant or unskillful PRETENDERS, who, by the use of this deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the happiness and health of their victims, and thus, in the end, injure themselves, and instead of being restored to a renewal of Life, Vigor and Happiness in their latter days, have with ruined Health, to sigh over his falling discomplement.

DR. JOHNSTON. OFFICE No. 7, SOUTH FREDERICK STREET BALTIMORE, MD.

Left hand side going from Baltimore street a few doors from the corner. Fail not to observe name and number.

No letters received unless postpaid and containing a stamp to be used on the reply. Persons writing should state age, and send a portion of advertisement describing symptoms.

ENDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS. The many thousands cured at this Establishment, year after year, and the numerous important Surgical Operations performed by Dr. Johnston witnessed by the representatives of the press and many other persons, testify of which have appeared in our papers, and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.
